Program Summary

Dane County Human Services Partners for After School Success (PASS) AmeriCorps members will be tutors and run extended learning programs at schools and community centers in Dane County, Wisconsin. At the end of the first year, PASS AmeriCorps members will improve the literacy skills of students reading below grade level and improve school engagement by building social-emotional skills for students at risk of not graduating high school. Members will leverage 1,300 volunteers who will tutor and support extended learning programs in their community. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
